Dear Parishioners,

Ash Wednesday is upon us. As you know, it lands on Valentine's Day this year, and no, I will not be giving out ashes in the shape of a Valentine's heart! Maybe for ten bucks... 😊

You still have some time during this Pre-Lenten season to pray about what you would like to do (or not do) during the holy 40 days of Lent. At RCIA this past week, we talked about why the Church focuses on fasting, prayer and almsgiving during these 40 days. It truly is a sacred time for us to convert our hearts away from sin and towards virtue, walk with Jesus on the road to Calvary by denying ourselves, and bolster our prayer life by adding something that is very feasible for us to do.

On the back side of this letter are 40 unique ideas for Lent, that RCIA Coordinator Misty Mealy shared with the class. Some of us may struggle with deciding what to do this year for Lent, or maybe we feel like we are in a rut because our mind is blank and we are tired of doing the same things we have done in years past. This year would be a good year to be very intentional about what and how we want this Lent to be. Now is the time to make this Lent the beginning of change in ourselves that we want to have, not just for the next 40 days, but for the rest of our lives.

2024 Diocesan Lenten Regulations:

Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of fast and abstinence.

All Fridays in Lent are days of abstinence.

Fasting means eating only one full meal with two smaller meals, which together do not equal the full meal. No snacks or eating between meals. Fasting obliges Catholics between the ages of 18 and 59.

Abstinence means eating no meat nor soup nor gravy made from meat. Abstinence obliges all Catholics over the age of 14. Sickness, hard manual labor, pregnancy, etc., automatically excuse a person from these obligations. Nevertheless, it should be pointed out that these are serious obligations. In cases of doubt or question, the priest who hears a person's confession should be consulted.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Sean M. Timmerman

34. Increase your charitable giving or start tithing.
35. Cut salt from all your food.
36. Pray in front of an abortion clinic for an hour a week.

The History of Ash Wednesday

Ashes have a place of prominence throughout the Old Testament. They are an outward sign of an internal state of penance or mourning. You can find some scriptural references below:

"Therefore I disown what I have said, and repent in dust and ashes." - Job 42: 6

"Daughter of my people, dress in sackcloth, roll in the ashes." - Jeremiah 6:26

"I turned to the Lord God to seek help, in prayer and petition, with fasting, sackcloth, and ashes." – Daniel 9:3

"When the news reached the king of Nineveh, he rose from his throne, laid aside his robe, covered himself with sackcloth, and sat in ashes. Then he had this proclaimed throughout Nineveh: ^{*} "By decree of the king and his nobles, no man or beast, no cattle or sheep, shall taste anything; they shall not eat, nor shall they drink water. Man and beast alike must be covered with sackcloth and call loudly to God; they all must turn from their evil way and from the violence of their hands." - Jonah 3: 6-8

And the practice continued after the coming of Jesus. The practice of public penance was common in the Early Church. After making a confession a person would receive ashes on his head from the priest. The practice of using ashes to mark the beginning of Lent is first recorded during the time of St. Gregory the Great. The Gregorian Sacramentary has the earliest known record of it, then called the "Day of Ashes." Pope Urban II recommended the practice be used universally throughout the Church in 1091.

Why Ashes?

For centuries, Catholic Christians have marked the beginning of the season of Lent by receiving ash on their foreheads on Ash Wednesday. This tradition has its roots in the Old Testament, where wearing ashes was a common sign of repentance for sins, and a sign of one's humility before God. Since Lent is a season of penitential renewal through prayer, fasting, and almsgiving, it's appropriate that this ancient sign marks the beginning of the season.

The ashes themselves are usually made by burning the palm fronds from the previous year's Palm Sunday. This symbolically connects the beginning of Lent with its end, connecting our change of heart with Christ's passion, death, and resurrection.

Ashes are usually distributed as part of the Mass on Ash Wednesday, often after the homily. As people approach the priest or other minister, he presses the ashes to their foreheads, and speaks one of two phrases: "Remember that you are dust, and to dust you shall return," or "Repent and believe in the Gospel."

-excerpt from usccb.org, by Fr. Larry Rice

Ash Wednesday's Significance

So when we go to Mass on Ash Wednesday and receive the blessed ashes on our forehead, we are repeating a somber, pious act that Catholics have been undergoing for over 1,500 years. As "The Liturgical Year, Septuagesima," by Abbot Gueranger, O.S.B., written in the middle decades of the 1800s, puts it: "We are entering, today, upon a long campaign of the warfare spoke of by the apostles: forty days of battle, forty days of penance. We shall not turn cowards, if our souls can but be impressed with the conviction that the battle and the penance must be gone through.

Like all those before us, we unhesitatingly embrace this invitation to sanctity this time to turn away from sin. We are part of that great cloud of witnesses who through all the ages have donned the ashes, publicly acknowledging that we are Christians, Christians who have sinned and seek to repent.
