Consecration of the Election to the Blessed Virgin Mary

Mary Immaculate, living tabernacle of the Divinity, where the eternal Wisdom lies hidden to be adored and served by angels and men, Queen of Heaven and of Earth, beneath whose sway are subject all things that are lower than God, Patroness of the United States of America, sorrowful and mindful of our own sinfulness and the sins of our nation, we come to thee, our refuge and hope. Knowing that our country cannot be saved by our own works and mindful of how much our nation has departed from the ways of thy Son, we humbly ask that thou wouldst turn thine eyes upon our country to bring about its conversion. We consecrate to thee the integrity of the upcoming election and its outcome, so that what is spiritually and morally best for the citizens of our country may be accomplished, and that all of those who are elected would govern according to the spiritual and moral principles which will bring our nation into conformity with the teachings of thy Son. Give grace to the citizens of this land so that they will choose leaders according to the Sacred Heart of thy Son, that His glory may be made manifest, lest we be given the leaders we deserve. Trusting in the providential care of God the Father and thy maternal care, we have perfect confidence that thou wilt take care of us and will not leave us forsaken. O Mary Immaculate, pray for us. Amen.

The Legion of Mary is going to offer a "Do-It-Yourself Retreat", for women or men, in preparation for making or renewing a Marian consecration. We did this a few years ago and would like to do it again. Some of you may still have the book, and you can use it again this time. It is called "33 Days to Morning Glory" by Fr. Michael Gaitley, and it is based on what was promoted by St. Louis de Montfort. As it says, it takes 33 days to complete the consecration. If you would like to do the retreat as a group, we will start on Nov. 5 so that it will end on Dec 8, feast of the Immaculate Conception.

Every week we will read about how one of our four giants of Marian consecration lived out his or her consecration to Jesus through Mary. The goal is to ponder their message in our hearts. If you want to know more about our Blessed Mother through four great saints, this would be a great opportunity. We will be selling the books for $5.00 the weekend of Oct 12/13. When December 8 comes around, we will really have something to celebrate! Any questions, ask them at their table! Or call Sherry LeBlanc, 321-3372.

Dear Parishioners,

In vitro fertilization has been in the news a lot lately, and politicians on both sides of the aisle have been eager to show that they support it. But what exactly is it, and is it morally okay to do? Children are a beautiful blessing for every family, but does the end always justify the means? Below is an excellent article from CatholicVote.org that explains the science and the morality of IVF.

In vitro fertilization (IVF) is not a pro-life procedure for several reasons, including that the process necessarily includes leaving human embryos to be frozen or discarded, a professor of theology explained in a recent article. “In order for IVF to be successful, multiple eggs are fertilized—that is, multiple humans are created—but only some of them are implanted in the womb,” Dr. Richard DeClue wrote in a September 16 article for Word on Fire. DeClue has an undergraduate degree in theology from Belmont Abbey College and three ecclesiastical degrees in theology from Catholic University of America. “The rest are discarded or frozen indefinitely, which is contrary to their human dignity,” he added.

According to the National Embryo Donation Center, there are currently approximately 1,500,000 frozen embryonic human beings in the United States. Additionally, DeClue later highlighted a recent statistic that “only 7 percent of embryos resulting from IVF will make it to live birth.”

In some cases, more than one human embryo is transferred to the woman’s uterus, to increase the chance of a successful implantation, DeClue explained. He pointed out that the Mayo Clinic states that it is possible for more than one human embryo to implant in the woman’s uterus at a time, resulting in “a multiple pregnancy.”

If this happens, the Mayo Clinic states, “A surgery called fetal reduction can be used to help a person deliver fewer babies.” DeClue indicated that “fetal reduction” essentially means a selective abortion. Moreover, not only is abortion sometimes employed in the process of IVF, but, according to DeClue, “eugenics is not uncommon either.”

During the stages before implantation, human embryos created in the laboratory are subject to testing for genetic diseases. DeClue cited another author from Word on Fire, Mark Bradford, who previously wrote that human embryos who appear to have genetic anomalies, such as Down syndrome, are not chosen for implantation. Instead, they are discarded. DeClue also explained why the Catholic Church teaches that the use of IVF is a grave sin, noting that several steps in the IVF procedure are intrinsically immoral. The process of fertilizing an egg in a laboratory to create a human embryo involves “the separation of the unitive and procreative aspects of the marital act,” DeClue wrote, which is “contrary to natural and divine law.”

“During the process,” DeClue explained: the woman takes “medicines to spur the growth of sacs in the ovaries that each contain an egg” and “a procedure is done to collect the eggs.” For the man’s part, “most often, the semen sample is collected through masturbation,” although other procedures are sometimes used such as “testicular aspiration” which “uses a needle or surgery to collect sperm directly from the testicle.” Of course, masturbation is an objectively grave sin, as the Catechism teaches (see CCC 2352).

The eggs are then fertilized with the collected semen in the laboratory. This is where the term in vitro comes from. It literally means “in glass,” referring to a laboratory dish.

As CatholicVote previously reported, the Catholic Church has condemned both surrogacy and IVF, teaching that “children have specific rights that protect them from being treated as commodities or scientific projects.” In March, Students for Life Action President Kristan Hawkins, a Catholic, pointed out on a social media thread about IVF: “Children are gifts and should always be treated as precious, valuable, and with respect.” In the same thread, Hawkins wrote that “[t]he IVF Industry profits off the struggles, fears, and good desires of couples, while ignoring medical healing that could address the cause of many couples’ seasons of infertility.”
